

Davidson Police - 2022 Annual Analysis for Biased-Based Policing

The Davidson Police Department reviews any bias-based complaints received and statistical data for daily contacts. Specific data is collected for traffic contacts, arrests, asset seizure and forfeiture, and citizen complaints. The annual report is based on a calendar year (January – December) and this report is for the calendar year of 2022. Any trends identified are immediately addressed through an early warning system for all sworn staff. No trends were identified for 2022.

Population and Demographics

Town of Davidson Population Breakdown – According to the US Census Bureau – QuickFacts, July 1, 2021, the population of Davidson was 15,132 (not including ETJ). A growth rate of 38% since 2010. Females edge out males as the majority at 52%. Racial breakdown of the community is:

The Davidson Police Department is a proactive, problem-solving agency intent on preventing crime, solving community problems, and aggressively investigating suspicious persons and circumstances. This includes active enforcement of motor vehicle laws. The Davidson Police Department prohibits the use of bias-based and/or racial profiling in any law enforcement endeavor or responsibility. Rather than using bias-based profiling, officers are trained to focus on a person’s conduct or other specific suspect information. Contacts other than consensual encounters should be based on probable cause, reasonable suspicion, or other circumstances supported by articulable facts.

Traffic Stops - Warnings

Warnings issued for traffic law violations are consistent with the demographics of Davidson when considering regional (Mecklenburg County) travel moving through the town limits and ETJ.

2022 Traffic Citation by Racial Background

Traffic Stops – Citations

Citations issued for traffic law violations are consistent with the demographics of Davidson when considering regional (Mecklenburg County) travel moving through the town limits and ETJ.

Arrests by Racial Background

Arrests*

Includes arrests for outside agencies and Davidson Police cases. Warrants from other agencies, including Federal, state, and local law enforcement agencies are served if extradition is approved.

Asset Seizure/Forfeiture

The seizure and subsequent forfeiture of assets by the Davidson Police Department staff is conducted in accordance with clearly established State and Federal guidelines. The State asset seizures and/or forfeitures during 2022 totaled $3,640.43.

Citizen Complaints

Davidson Police Department encourages an open dialogue between staff and the public we serve. Two citizen complaints were received during the calendar year of 2022. The complaint findings were as follows: One finding of NOT SUSTAINED and one finding of UNFOUNDED. There were no complaints related to biased-based policing. See Annual Citizen Complaint, Internal Affairs Investigation and Commendation Analysis for 2022 for specific details on complaints.

Findings

1. Based on a review of all 2021 and 2022 data, no patterns or trends have been identified indicating a need for corrective action.
2. All Davidson Police Officers receive annual training in the practice of de-escalation techniques and policy reviews related to any use of force and duty to intervene. The 2022 training schedule included a course in Ethics: Preempting Misconduct and Increasing Integrity, Raising the Bar: Enhancing Community Engagement, Victim Centered Response, and Racial Equity Institute (REI) - Phase 1.
3. Training related to the Davidson Police Department's policies against bias-based policing are provided as part of the annual in-service blocks of instruction, including courses available through NCDOJ Commission on Law Enforcement Standards and Training, and through PowerDMS. Practicing leadership habits of Courage, Humility, Integrity, Positivity, Selflessness and Duty are presented during Ethics Roll-Call training blocks over a period of twelve months.